WAR BULLETINS

Paris, Dec. 11, 4:30 a. m.—"Any nation keeping out of the present struggle commits moral, political and economic suicide." Take Joneacu, Rumanian minister of the interior, is thus quoted in a dispatch published by the Matin. The quotation continues: "The Rumanian nation, democratic and liberal in its culture, must not commit such a crime. The present war offers a unique opportunity for it to realize its program without endangering the independence of its liberties of the kingdom."

Berlin, Dec. 11, by wireless to Say-ville, I. I.—The proposal of Pope Benedict for a truce among the warring nations during the Christmas holidays, is said by the official press bureau today to have been declined by Russia.

The German press bureau previously announced that Germany was willing to agree to a Christmas truce, provided the other nations at war gave their assent.

AUTOS COLLIDE ON WASHINGTON AVENUE

The new Reed hotel automobile bus figured in a collision this morning with a small automobile driven by Ed Morrissey, a local salesman. The bus was just getting under way for a trip to the Union depot and, as it reached the foot of Twenty-fifth street hill, was struck by Morrissey's car, which was headed south on Washington avenue. Both cars were damaged to some extent, it being found necessary to stop the bus for repairs.
No one was injured.

AGRICULTURAL CLUB
ORGANIZED AT THE
HIGH SCHOOL

Prof. C. L. Anderson of the Agricultural college gave a very interesting talk today in the assembly hall at the high school on the extension work done in the United States along these lines.

After the talk in the assembly, there was a meeting of the boys' club called and about sixty turned out.
They organized an agricultural club and the officers elected were:

President, Grant Rounds; vice president, Leonard Mattson; secretary and treasurer, Frank Adams.

CARNEGIE VISITS
THE WHITE HOUSEOpposes Proposed Truce in European War During the Holiday Season.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Andrew Carnegie, a White House caller today, expressed decided opposition to a truce in the European war during the Christmas holidays. He declared that it would be unchristianlike and immoral to stop the fighting and then begin it again. He added that he could not believe that any nation which adopted such a suggestion was doing it sincerely.

The president was out golfing and Mr. Carnegie said he probably would return to pay his respects. He praised Mr. Wilson's efforts in behalf of peace.

Militarists Responsible for War.
Mr. Carnegie gave it as his opinion that the military caste in Germany was responsible for the war, and that at the time hostilities broke out the Kaiser was ill and opposed to the war.

Mr. Carnegie said he hoped that the world would be so horrified over the war that permanent peace would follow. He said his peace foundation would continue its work, and he believed ultimately international arbitration would settle all disputes.

War at any Price.

"The Kaiser has told me that he took the greatest pride in the fact that he reigned for many years without being involved in war," said Mr.
Carnegie. "But he was surrounded by a ring of militarists, who were eager for war at any price."

Mr. Carnegie showed interest in a suggestion that he might be called upon by the president to help bring about peace when the time comes.
"I will do anything I possibly can," he said. "I believe Mr. Wilson earnestly desires peace and the entire country should support him."

MILITARY TRAINING IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Macon, Ga., Dec. 10.—Military training will be introduced in the public schools of Bibb county, including those of this city, it was announced today by the county board of education. It is planned to obtain an instructor who has had army experience. There are six thousand boy students in the public schools.

is the object of a reprieve honored in the state penitentiary, having been convicted of burglary in the district court for Cassia county.

governor that Burrell is suffering

"Plumb Crazy" This Time

When Richardson loaded the store from cellar to garret with new holiday goods this summer and early fall, folks said "Rich is half-crazy." The war came and they said "He's lucky." Now they'll say: "Plumb crazy, because, starting Saturday, I'm going to upset the toy market, turn it on end and make prices so mercilessly low, values so eternally big, that there'll be just one place in Ogden to buy toys. Prices slashed, gashed, torn, slithered and that are absolutely new; that have not been warming the shelf for a year or five years.

Absolutely unprecedented values. Everything lower, everything better, everything

TRAILERS PLACED ON OREM INTERURBAN
Salt Lake, Dec. 11.—To care for the heavy holiday travel, two new, all-steel passenger trailers have been bought and put in service by the Salt Lake & Utah railroad. The cars are of the latest model, with upholstered seats, and each has a seating capacity of sixty-six passengers.

All construction work on the road is being hurried, with a view of having it completed before the arrival of severe weather, if possible. A new sidings has been put in at Harris, on the Provo bench, and practically the entire bench is being furnished coal through that station. The new brick and concrete depot at American Fork is nearing completion and will be in service in about thirty days.

With a view of extending the line to Payson next spring, engineers are making final surveys between Provo and Payson. The company now has three or four routes under consideration and the engineers are making the selection of the one to be followed.

SCHOOL BOARD HOLDS
CHARGES LACK BASIS

Salt Lake, Dec. 11.—By a vote of seven to two, the board of education decided last night that A. D. McMullen, a board member, had failed to prove a basis for his expressed assumption that Superintendent D. H.
Christensen and L. M. Gillilan, principal of the West Side high school, were in collusion to advance each other's personal interests.
A motion, reading "that the board finds that the evidence submitted does not support the statements or assumptions made by Mr. McMullen," was introduced by James T. Hammond and was carried after much oratory, Mr. McMullen and George M.

Sullivan casting the only dissenting votes.

Arguing against the motion, Mr.
McMullen declared that he was still of the same opinion and that he was confident that there was a political deal on the between the superintendent and the principal. He went on to say that he had a right to that opinion; that he believed he had thoroughly proved by the examination of witnesses that there was good and sufficient ground for the opinion and that he was not accountable to any other member of the board for his opinion. He had a right to criticize the employees of the school system, he added, and would stand on that right.

EVERS IS SERIOUSLY
ILL OF PNEUMONIA
New York, Dec. 10.—John Evers, captain of the pennant-winning Boston Braves, is dangerously ill at the Hotel Somerset here. Early today his illness was diagnosed as pneumonia and two doctors and two trained nurses are now in constant attendance upon him, while Mrs. Evers has been summoned from Chicago by telegraph and is now on her way to his bedside.

The doctors were evidently sure of Evers' recovery, provided he could be kept in bed. He is a nervous invalid, and the increased seriousness of his illness is attributed to the fact that last night he disobeyed the doctors' orders and insisted on getting out of bed and sitting up in his room. It is expected that the presence of Mrs.
Evers may make him less restless and more inclined to follow the treatment outlined by the physicians and nurses.
President Gaffney of the Braves said tonight:

"The doctor told me this afternoon that only one of Johnny's lungs is affected. He said with care Evers ought to come out of it all right. I Evers caught a cold during the blizzard on the opening day of the Na-been in bed."
